Mission Viejo Aurora Celebrates its 40th Anniversary

AURORA, CO – The Mission Viejo Aurora Community is celebrating its 40th anniversary. Mission Viejo, the uniquely California influenced and designed community, opened on September 15, 1972. The community was officially dedicated by then Governor of Colorado, John Love on September 22, 1972. In partnership with the Aurora History Museum and Denver Public Library's Creating Your Community project, the Mission Viejo HOA created a special web site that can be appreciated from anyone with an interest in Denver's history. The web site: <http://creatingcommunities.denverlibrary.org/community/mission-viejo-aurora> has digital copies of exhibit panels and photos of homes, buildings, and residents at community events. Other history details including old newsletters, floorplans etc. can be found on the Mission Viejo HOA website on the "About the Neighborhood" section at <http://missionviejohoa.org/history.html>.
